

INDUSTRIAL MARKET OVERVIEW

MASON TAYKANDY, Research Coordinator

The Metro Vancouver industrial market continued to demonstrate its resilience with vacancy rates stabilizing around 1%. Most vacant spaces tend to lack modern specifications, as tenants demand higher ceiling heights and flexible loading capabilities. Lease rates grew by 2.3% quarter-over-quarter, reflecting the industrial market's tightness and ongoing lease activity. With the Bank of Canada's decision to increase the policy interest rate to 4.75%, the downward trend in sales activity continued as the cost of borrowing rises. About 4 million SF under construction is expected to be delivered by the end of the year, signaling an optimistic market outlook as the influx of new space aims to support demand.
