

RETAIL MARKET OVERVIEW

MACYN SCHOLZ, Director of Research

This quarter, the Bank of Canada raised the policy rate by 25 basis points, bringing the current prime rate to 6.95%. However, the retail industry in Metro Vancouver has not yet felt the full effect of this soft recession, as consumer spending remains strong. This goes beyond the demand for budget-friendly or essential items, as experiential retail demand is up. According to Statistics Canada, restaurant/bar spending reached new highs in April in BC. An increase in the number of cruise ships in Vancouver harbor this year is also helping downtown retailers by boosting the foot traffic; between this quarter and October, we will see a record high of 331 ships.
